

Ryan J. Vershay Recognized by The Indiana Lawyer as an Up and Coming Lawyer

Lewis Wagner, LLP is pleased to announce that Ryan J. Vershay has been recognized by The Indiana Lawyer as an Up and Coming Lawyer.

Indiana Lawyer Leadership in Law annually honors Indiana attorneys who make meaningful contributions, not only to the legal profession, but to their communities and beyond. The Up and Coming Lawyer Award specifically recognizes those early in their legal career who have demonstrated both professional success, and community commitment through support of social and civic community-based organizations and programs.

Vershay represents businesses and individuals in state and federal court in all aspects of real estate and business litigation. Since 2013, he has been Indiana counsel for a national bank in statewide residential mortgage foreclosure and quiet title litigation. Vershay has assumed the role of lead counsel for a national pipeline transmission company in right-of-way and eminent domain litigation in state and federal court. He has developed a business relationship with one the largest privately held real estate management and development firms in the country, assisting with various real estate related matters. He has also litigated various commercial disputes and served as temporary outside general counsel for a local grocery chain.

Vershay is a graduate of Ave Maria College in Ypsilanti, Michigan and obtained his J.D. from the University of Notre Dame School of Law. He has been a Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Rating of AV and has been recognized by Indiana Super Lawyers® from 2015-2018.
